

I. GENERAL STATEMENT OF POLICY

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.) provides that no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

Sexual harassment of any employee or student by any other employee or student, or by anyone a student or employee may interact with, in order to fulfill job or school responsibilities, is not only illegal as a form of sex discrimination as defined by Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 but also is a violation of this Policy and will not be tolerated.

It is the policy of the Making Community Connections Charter School to maintain a learning and working environment that is free from sexual harassment and violence. The Charter School will not tolerate any form of sexual harassment and sexual violence.

It shall be a violation of this policy for any student or employee to harass a student or an employee through conduct or communication of a sexual nature as defined by this policy.

It shall be violation of this policy for any student or employee to be sexually violent to a student or employee.

The Charter School will act to promptly investigate and equitably resolve all complaints, either formal or informal, oral or written, of sexual harassment, sexual violence, and to discipline any student or employee who is judged to have committed these offenses.

Any person believing that the School or any part of the School organization has inadequately applied the above-referenced regulations shall bring forth a complaint to the designated person assigned by each school leader for their respective building (hereinafter Designee). Any complainant has the right to file a complaint directly with the Title IX Coordinator/Civil Rights Coordinator should they not wish to pursue the process outlined above for any reason. The School's Title IX/Civil Rights Coordinator is the Chief Education Officer of the Charter School.

II. SEXUAL HARASSMENT/SEXUAL VIOLENCE DEFINED

A. Sexual harassment consists of unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical conduct or other verbal or physical conduct or communication of a sexual nature when:

1. Submission to that conduct or communication is made a term or condition, either explicitly or implicitly, of obtaining or retaining employment, or of obtaining an education; or
2. Submission to or rejection of that conduct or communication by an individual is used as a factor in decisions affecting that individual's employment or education; or,
3. That conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially or unreasonably interfering with an individual's employment or education, or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive employment or education environment.

B. Sexual harassment is not limited to requests for sexual favors in return for job or educational benefits. Sexual harassment may include but is not limited to:

1. verbal harassment and/or abuse of a sexual nature;
2. leering at an individual's body;
3. jokes of a sexual nature;
4. the display anywhere on school facilities of sexually suggestive, sexually demeaning or pornographic objects, pictures, writings, posters or cartoons;
5. graphic verbal comments about an individual's body, clothing or sexual activity;
6. subtle pressure for sexual activity;
7. inappropriate patting or pinching;
8. intentional brushing against ~ student's or an employee's body;
9. demanding sexual favors accompanied by implied or overt threats concerning an individual's employment or educational status;
10. demanding sexual favors accompanied by implied or overt promises of preferential treatment with regard to an individual's employment or educational status;
11. any sexually motivated unwelcome touching; or
12. sexual violence which is a physical act of aggression that includes a sexual act or sexual purpose.

III. REPORTING PROCEDURES

Any person who believes he or she has been the victim of sexual harassment or sexual violence, by a student or an employee of the Charter School, or any third person with knowledge or belief of conduct which may violate this policy should report the alleged acts immediately to an appropriate Charter School official as designated by this policy. The Charter School encourages the reporting party or complainant to use the report form available from the School Leader of each building or available from the CEO, but use of the form is not required.

A. In Each School Building. The building level complaint manager is the persons responsible for receiving oral or written reports of sexual harassment or sexual violence at the building level. Upon receipt of a report, the complaint manager must notify the CEO immediately without screening or investigating the report. If the report was given verbally, the complaint manager shall reduce it to written form within 24 hours and forward it to the CEO. Failure to forward any report or complaint as provided herein will result in disciplinary action. If the complaint involves the school leader or complaint manager, the complaint shall be filed directly with the CEO.

- B. Organization-wide. The Board of Trustees hereby designates the Chief Education Officer as the Charter School Title TX/Human Rights Officer to receive reports or complaints of sexual harassment or sexual violence from any student or employee, and also from the complaint managers as outlined above. If the complaint involves the CEO, the complaint shall be filed directly with the Board of Trustees. The School District shall conspicuously post the name of the Human Rights Officer, including a mailing address and telephone number.
- C. Submission of a complaint or report of sexual harassment or sexual violence will not affect the complainant's future employment, grades or work assignments.
- D. Use of formal reporting forms is not mandatory. The Charter School encourages the reporting party or complainant to use the report form available from the School, Leader or available from the CEO. It is recognized that certain students, especially younger children, may not be able to submit a written complaint. In such cases, alternate methods of filing complaints such as tape recorders or note takers shall be made available.
- E. The Charter School will respect the confidentiality of the complainant and the individual(s) against whom the complaint is filed as much as possible, consistent with the Charter School's legal obligations and the necessity to investigate allegations and take disciplinary action.

IV. INVESTIGATION AND RECOMMENDATION

- A. Each school shall designate a complaint managers, e.g., a teacher, a guidance counselor, an administrator. Whenever possible, there shall be two complaint manager, one female, the other male. Their names will be posted in a prominent place in the school as well as the Student Handbook.

These managers shall be authorized to receive confidential complaints.

If both the complainant and alleged harasser agree, the complaint manager may work with the complainant and alleged harasser to informally resolve the complaint provided, however, that the complaint manager must first notify the complainant of his/her right to end the informal process at anytime and begin the formal complaint process as set forth in paragraph B below.

The complaint manager shall notify the Human Rights Officer of any and all complaints resolved informally by submitting a written summary of the resolution.

- B. In compliance with applicable federal and state law, it is the policy of the Charter School to investigate promptly and resolve equitably all complaints of sexual harassment and discrimination on the basis of sex.
 1. The CEO as the Human Rights officer upon receipt of a report or complaint alleging sexual harassment or sexual violence shall immediately authorize an investigation and appoint an appropriate officer. This person may be the already designated complaint manager, another Charter School official or a third party.
 2. The number of people involved with any harassment investigation will be kept as small as possible. All those who are involved will protect the confidentiality of any and all information relating to the case.

3. Each person involved in the investigation must be informed of appropriate methods of case documentation. Corroboration of evidence and a credibility statement of the complainant(s) and witness(es) should be gathered.
4. Maintaining confidentiality without violating due process of the accused always should be the goal.
5. When the grievance comes from a female student or faculty member, whenever possible, a female counselor or staff member shall be present at all discussions and meetings involving the case.
6. When the grievance comes from a male student or faculty member, whenever possible, a male counselor or staff member shall be present at all discussions and meetings involving the case.
7. The Investigator shall provide a written report of the status of the investigation within ten working days to the CEO. If the CEO is the subject of the complaint, the report shall be submitted to the Board of Trustees.
8. The investigation may consist of personal interviews with the complainant, the individual(s) against whom the complaint is filed, and others who may have knowledge of the alleged incident(s) or circumstances giving rise to the complaint. The investigation may also consist of any other methods and documents deemed pertinent by the Investigator.
9. Persons accused of harassment will be given sufficient information about the allegations and a reasonable opportunity to respond before they are found to have harassed another and before any corrective action or discipline is imposed.
10. The Investigator shall file a report with the CEO no later than twenty days following receipt of the complaint. The CEO will notify the victim and alleged harasser, in writing, of the outcome of the investigation. If additional time is needed to complete the investigation or take appropriate action, the Superintendent will provide all parties with a written status report within twenty days following receipt of the complaint.
11. Any victim or accused who is still not satisfied with the outcome of the Charter School investigations may file a request for review by the Board of Trustees by submitting a written appeal to the CEO within ten working days following receipt of the Charter School's findings.
12. At all times victims have the right to pursue alternative procedures set forth below.
13. Retaliation in any form against any person who has filed a grievance relating to harassment is forbidden. If it occurs it will be considered:
 - a. for staff: possible grounds for dismissal; and
 - b. for a student: possible grounds for removal from the setting up to and including expulsion.

V. ACTION IF COMPLAINT IS SUBSTANTIATED

- A. The administration should review the victim's records, grades, evaluations, etc., with a view to correcting any injustice(s) that might have occurred as a result of the harassment. In the case of an employee, the Charter School may need to consider rehiring a terminated employee or offering a promotion or raise that might have been denied.
- B. Upon determination that the complaint is valid, the Charter School shall take such disciplinary action as it deems necessary and appropriate to end the harassment, and prevent its recurrence.
- C. Disciplinary measures include, but are not limited to, expulsion, termination, verbal and written warnings/reprimands in employee or student files, detention or in-school suspensions, out-of-school suspension, behavior contract, requirement of a verbal and/or written apology to the victim and mandatory education and training on sexual harassment.
- D. Since it is not unusual for harassment to begin again after several weeks have lapsed, the harasser should be supervised closely. The victim should be encouraged to report any renewed problems. If possible, the harasser and the victim should be separated, with the harasser being the one to be transferred. Care should be taken not to punish the victim.

VI. ACTION IF THE COMPLAINT IS UNSUBSTANTIATED

If the complaint proves to be unsubstantiated, the Investigator must review the findings and report with the complainant.

This review should include a complete description of the investigation and the reasons why the complaint was found to be unsubstantiated.

This should be done without identifying the names of any other students or employees who were contacted and in compliance with FERPA and privacy laws.

VII. REPRISAL/RETALIATION

There should be no retaliation for a complaint made in good faith. The Charter School will discipline any individual who retaliates or encourages others to retaliate against any person who reports alleged sexual harassment or who retaliates against any person who testifies, assists or participates in an investigation, proceeding or hearing relating to a sexual harassment complaint.

If the complaint was not made in good faith, a reprimand or some other disciplinary action may be in order.

VIII. RIGHT TO ALTERNATIVE COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

The procedures in this policy do not deny the right of any individual to pursue other avenues of recourse, which may include filing charges with the Commissioner of Education, initiating civil action or seeking redress under state criminal statutes and/or federal law.

The individual may choose to file the alleged violation or complaint with:
